ORDER MODIFYING CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

On January 14, 2009, defendant Williams filed Defendant Gerald D. Williams’ Motion to Modify Terms of His Pretrial Release (doc #119). The motion requested permission for defendant Williams to travel from January 30, 2009 to February 2, 2009, from his residence to North Carolina in order to retrieve equipment used in his business. The motion stated that counsel for the government had no objection to the travel request. Pretrial Services informed the Court that they do not oppose the requested travel. An Order was filed on January 29, 2009, granting the motion to travel.

On January 29, 2009, defense counsel orally requested that the travel dates be changed to allow travel from February 7, 2009 to February 9, 2009.

Therefore, it is ORDERED that defendant Williams’ oral motion to modify terms of his pretrial release is granted. Defendant Williams is permitted to travel from February 7, 2009 to February 9, 2009. Defendant Williams is directed to provide his travel itinerary to his Pretrial Services Officer prior to his departure on February 7, 2009. All other conditions of the Order Setting Conditions of Release remain in effect.
