MOTION FOR DETENTION

Comes now the United States of America, by and through its undersigned counsel, and hereby moves this Court to order the detention of Ranfe Adaias Hernandez-Flores, a/k/a "Miguel," and states the following in support of the motion:

1. This motion is being made at the defendant's first appearance before a judicial officer. An Indictment has been filed charging the defendant with one count of conspiracy to transport illegal aliens, to unlawfully produce identification documents, to unlawfully transfer the means of identification of another person and to commit social security fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371 and two counts of transporting illegal aliens in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1324(a)(1)(A)(ii).
2. The defendant faces maximum statutory terms of imprisonment of up to five years upon a conviction of count one and up to ten years for each conviction of counts four and five.
3. The defendant is a citizen and national of Guatemala and he is unlawfully present in the United States. The defendant is subject to deportation from the United States if released. If the defendant is released he would pose a serious risk of flight 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). Additionally, the defendant has been charged with crimes related to the production of false identity documents and upon release he would pose a serious risk to obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice by further using one or more of those means of identification to flee or evade law enforcement authorities. 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f).

4. The United States submits that there is clear and convincing evidence that there are no conditions which the Court could place on the defendant's release which would reasonably assure the defendant's appearance in Court and the safety of the community. See 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g): (1) nature and circumstances of the offense; (2) weight of the evidence; (3) whether the defendant was on probation/parole at the time of the offense; and (4) danger to the community. Because of this, the United States requests that a Detention Hearing be held and that the defendant be detained. See generally, United States v. Sazenski, 806 F.2d 846, 848 (8th Cir. 1986); United States v. Warren, 787 F.2d 1237, 1238 (8th Cir. 1986).

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, the United States requests that the Court hold a Detention Hearing in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and following such hearing, order the detention of the defendant.

Respectfully submitted,

Beth Phillips
United States Attorney
