TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Regarding Cristina Gonzalez. She is currently in federal hold with no bond. I appeared in court to co-sign for her, however, it was denied due to a current Missouri Probation and Parole commitment.

We, are her grandparents and are anxious to see her released. A parole violation hearing was cancelled and to my knowledge the state has no hold on her.

She has her job waiting and is very helpful to her family. We feel she offers no threat and has matured a great deal.

We are still willing to co-sign for her, or whatever necessary to ensure her release.

SINCERELY
