MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL FOR DEFENDANT JULIO CESAR LLANAS-RODRIGUEZ, WITH SUGGESTIONS IN SUPPORT

COMES NOW Ronald E. Partee, and moves this Court to allow him to withdraw as Mr. Llanas-Rodriguez' court-appointed counsel,

IN SUPPORT of this Motion, Counsel states as follows:

1. Defendant is charged in a multi-count, multi-defendant identification fraud conspiracy Indictment returned January 10, 2012. Counsel was appointed under CJA on February 3, 2012. Following his arraignment on February 8, 2012, defendant was remanded into custody, as he was ineligible for a bond. On November 20, 2012, defendant entered a guilty plea pursuant to a plea agreement. The preliminary Presentence Investigation Report has been prepared, and any objections are now due February 5, 2013. A sentencing date has not been scheduled.

2. Personal circumstances have arisen for counsel such that his mental condition materially impairs his ability to represent the defendant. Missouri Rules of Professional Conduct (MRPC) 4-1.16(a)(2) provides that counsel shall withdraw under these circumstances. Defendant has been fully informed of counsel's situation, and while defendant wishes counsel to remain on the case, counsel must withdraw at this time.

3. Counsel believes withdrawal can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interest of the client, in accordance with MRPC 4-1.16(b)(1). New counsel can request an extension of time in which to file any objections to the presentence report, if necessary, and appear for defendant at sentencing. Present counsel will immediately make his entire file available to new counsel, and will be available for any consultation if requested, and take any other steps necessary to protect the defendant's interests, as required by MRPC 4-1.16(d).

4. The appointment of new counsel for Mr. Llanas-Rodriguez will insure that his rights are protected.

WHEREFORE, appointed counsel for defendant Llanas-Rodriguez respectfully requests leave to withdraw and that new counsel be appointed promptly to represent Mr. Llanas-Rodriguez.
