GOVERNMENT’S MOTION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS AD PROSEQUENDUM

The government respectfully requests this Court to order the Clerk to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Prosequendum in the above-entitled case. The government requests that the Writ command the, Superintendent of the Western Reception & Diagnostic Correction Center, to deliver to the custody of the United States Marshal, the defendant, TERRY W. THOMAS (Inmate No. 1135781), so that he may appear in the above-entitled case in accordance with the laws of the United States, and after having so appeared, to be returned to the aforementioned custody as directed by this Court. In support of this request, the United States avers the following:

I. SUGGESTIONS IN SUPPORT

1. Defendant is presently incarcerated at the Western Reception & Diagnostic Correction Center, 3401 Faraon, St. Joseph, MO 64506.
2. Defendant was charged by grand jury indictment with conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine in an amount of 500 grams or more, on March 1, 2011.
3. Defendant does not have a scheduled court appearance.

II. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the government respectfully requests this Court order the Clerk to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Prosequendum in the above entitled case.

Respectfully submitted,

Beth Phillips
United States Attorney
