SHOW CAUSE HEARING

HEARING HELD. Parties appear in person and with counsel to show cause why the defendant's bond should not be revoked and the Order Setting Conditions Of Release be set aside. The Court takes up the Pretrial Services Violation Report dated June 27, 2011 with the defendant. The defendant addresses the Court and requests she receive help with drug treatment. The defendant's father is also present and offers assistance with providing treatment for the defendant. After hearing all statements, the Court finds that at the present time the defendant's bond will be revoked and the Order Setting Conditions Of Release is set aside. Counsel for the defendant is advised that if at some point in the near future they would like to revisit the custody issue and treatment options, they should make such request to Magistrate Larsen for consideration. Forfeiture will not be ordered. Court adjourned.
