  )
  ) Defendant.                                    )

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME IN WHICH TO SUBMIT OBJECTIONS TO PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION REPORT

Comes now Defendant, by counsel, and moves the Court for an enlargement of time to submit his objections to the Presentence Investigation Report prepared December 7, 2011.

1. Counsel and Defendant require additional time to review the report in order to insure the greatest possible accuracy.
2. Defendant requests permission to submit his objections no later than January 11, 2012.
3. On December 19, 2011, the government representative in this case, Special Assistant United States Attorney Steven Berry, indicated that the government does not oppose an extension.
4. Counsel for Defendant assures the Court that this requested enlargement of time is not sought to hinder this matter, and will not result in prejudice to the Defendant.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that an enlargement of time to and including January 11, 2012, be granted in which to submit objections to the Presentence Investigation Report.

Respectfully submitted,
