CASE # 10-00320-16-CR-W-DGK

Frank M. Alvarez
(Real Party in Interest)

Congressionally mandated request (THE Jencks Act)

Comes now, Frank M. Alvarez, the flesh and blood, living soul of majority age and sound mind, competent to state the matters set forth herein do affirm that the foregoing is true, correct and complete not misleading with 1st hand knowledge of the facts here with Title 28 U.S.C 1746 (1) "without the United States" under Penalty of perjury, sworn to within the United States of America.

Defendant in error is now invoking THE Jencks Act in accordance with 18 U.S.C Section 3500.

(1) The Supreme court held that a defendant is entitled to pre-trial discovery of government witness statements for purpose of impeachment. (Docket # 226 motion for Bill of Particulars) which was denied must be granted based upon this Act.

(2) The government failure to provide discovery of all relevants Jencks Act material is open error and subject to immediate dismissal with prejudice
(Brady v. Maryland)

(3) Any written statement made, signed, adopted, or approved by an alleged witness, any substantially verbatim transcription, and any grandjury transcript falls within the Jencks Act.

Defendant again is requesting based upon this act a copy of the complaint against me, copy of affidavit of probable cause, a copy of my arrest warrant, a copy of all stamped motions filed by defendant in error, so that I can prepare for a possible trial proceeding.

All things stated are stated with out prejudice and all rights are reserved, restored and never waived.
