v

Clifton Taylor D.
Defendant

Case # 09-00112-01-CR-W-ODS

No. 09-00043REL-01

Motion: For Dismissal due to contempt

Comes now the Defendant Clifton Taylor without counsel and not trained in the law hereby moves this court to grant a motion to dismiss case number 09-00043REL-01 due to contempt of court by federal investigators.

On March 13, 2009 during a bond hearing Federal Magistrate Robert E Larsen requested from federal investigators the cause of detainment of Defendant Clifton Taylor D. The federal investigator replied further detainment is motioned to await results of DNA from a cup the defendant had. As of this date DNA results from this cup have not been ordered against the defendant case # 09-00043REL-01. Therefore under sworn oath to the courts for the whole truth. The federal investigator has placed himself in contempt with the courts which it is constitutional to believe in addition the federal investigator/witness statements also are incompetent to stand trial. Which is probable cause to grant motion for dismissal and exonerate the defendant from any and all alleged charges.

Respectfully submitted this 15 day of May 2009
