

U. S. Department of Justice
Drug Enforcement Administration
Office of Forensic Sciences
Digital Evidence Laboratory

www.dea.gov

Name: Danielle M. Desfosses

Position: Senior Computer Forensic Examiner

Digital Evidence Work Experience

Senior Computer Forensic Examiner - DEA Digital Evidence Laboratory, Lorton, VA: (6/2004 – 1/2008) and (03/01/2009 – Present).

Digital Evidence Examiner – Stroz Friedberg, Washington, DC: (1/2008 – 2/2009).

Digital Evidence Examiner Training

DEA Digital Evidence Examiner training: (6/2004 – 8/2004)

Guidance Software, Intermediate EnCase Training (32 hours): (7/2004)

National White Collar Crime Center, Cybercop 202 - ILook Automated Forensic Application (40 hours): (8/2006)

Guidance Software, Advanced EnCase Training (32 hours): (3/2007)

Global Knowledge, MS SQL Server 2005 for Developers (40 hours): (7/2007)

Forward Discovery, Macintosh Forensic Survival Course (40 hours): (6/2008)

International Association of Computer Investigative Specialists, Forensic Computer Examiner Training Program (80 hours): (5/2009)

Information Technology Work Experience

Information Security Consultant, BearingPoint, Inc. (2002-2004)

Information Security Consultant, PricewaterhouseCoopers (1999-2002)

Network Administrator, PricewaterhouseCoopers (1998-1999)

Education

M.F.S, High Technology Crime Investigations, 2004, The George Washington University

B.A., Sociology, 1995, University of Virginia

Information Technology Courses, 1998-1999, Northern Virginia Community College

Court Testimony

Testified in federal court as a fact witness on digital evidence (Chicago, IL): (05/2008).

EXHIBIT A