TROY R. SOLOMON,
CHRISTOPHER J. ELDER, and DELMON L. JOHNSON

Defendants

MOTION TO TRANSFER VENUE AND SEVER

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, TROY R. SOLOMON, Defendant, and files this Motion to Transfer Venue and Sever as authorized by Rules 21 and 14 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and in support hereof would respectfully show unto this Court as follows:

I.

Background

Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON has been charged with distributing and conspiring to distribute controlled substances in violation of the Controlled Substances Act, and conspiring to promote and conceal the laundering of money. Defendant resides in Harris County, Texas, which is located in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division. All of the allegations of wrongdoing involving Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON are intertwined with his business, Ascencia Nutritional Pharmacy, which is also located in Harris County, Texas. All of the employees of said business and other witnesses whom Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON will call to testify on his behalf are located in Harris County, Texas. In addition, all of the records of Ascencia Nutritional Pharmacy, as well as the various medical facilities listed in the indictment, are located in Harris County, Texas.

Further, at least two (2) of the other defendants in this case, DELMON L. JOHNSON and CHRISTOPHER J. ELDER, reside in or around Harris County, Texas. The witnesses, records, and other evidence relied upon by these defendants are also located in Harris County, Texas. Without commenting on the validity of the indictment or the statements contained therein, Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON has no connection to the Western District of Missouri, and will endure a substantial and unreasonable burden and inconvenience if forced to defend in said District.

II.

Transfer is Proper under Rule 21(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

Rule 21(b) provides that “upon the defendant’s motion, the court may transfer the proceeding, or one or more counts against that defendant to another district for the convenience of the parties and witnesses and in the interest of justice.” In this matter, three (3) of the defendants are charged with criminal activity that allegedly occurred in Harris County, Texas, located in the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division. The medical facilities and pharmacy wherein the alleged wrongful conduct occurred are located in said District and Division. Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON’s witnesses and the bulk of the evidence exonerating him are located in said District and Division. Given these facts, it will be extremely inconvenient and expensive for Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON to present his defense in the Western District of Missouri. Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON lacks the financial resources to present a viable defense in the Western District of Missouri and will incur substantial burden, inconvenience, and violation of his due process rights unless the charges against him are severed and transferred to the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division. Given the vast disparity of resources between Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON and the United States of America, it is in the interest of justice and the convenience of the parties to sever and transfer the charges against Defendant TROY R. SOLOMON to the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division.

WHEREFORE, TROY R. SOLOMON, Defendant, requests that this Court order the severance and transfer of his case to the Southern District of Texas, Houston Division.

Respectfully submitted,
