The defendant was under probation supervision when she allegedly committed the instant offense. The* defendant's Missouri State probation officer advises the defendant has been non-compliant on supervision, and she will be recommending revocation of the defendant's probation based upon the instant offense arrest and pending federal charges. The defendant also has an Order of Protection filed against her by her mother, but they have continued to have contact. She has a history of using/abusing marijuana, cocaine and hallucinogens.

- X (5) Rebuttable Presumptions
- In determining that the defendant should be detained, the Court also relied on the following rebuttable presumptions(s) contained in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e) which the Court finds the defendant has not rebutted:
- a. That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community because the Court finds that the crime involves:
- (A) A crime of violence; or
  - (B) An offense for which the maximum penalty is life imprisonment or death; or
  - (C) A controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more or;

- and the Court finds that
- 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(1), or
  - 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2), or
  - 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3) applies.
- X b. That no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community because the Court finds that there is probable cause to believe:
- X (A) That the defendant has committed a controlled substance violation which has a maximum penalty of 10 years or more.
  - (B) That the defendant has committed an offense under

18 U.S.C. § 924(c) or § 956(a).

The Court, in finding that there are no conditions or combination of conditions which reasonably will assure the defendant's appearance and the safety of any other person and the community, has considered and rejected alternatives. Among the alternatives considered, the Court has rejected house arrest and a daily reporting scheme. In rejecting these alternatives, the Court notes the gravity of the offense and the substantial penalties which may possibly be imposed.

D. Additional Directives

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court directs that:

The defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and

The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and

That, upon an order of a court of the United States, or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with court proceedings.
