AMENDED NOTICE AND INFORMATION OF INTENT TO USE PRIOR CONVICTION TO ENHANCE PUNISHMENT

Comes now the United States of America, by Beth Phillips, United States Attorney, and Brent Venneman, Assistant United States Attorney, both for the Western District of Missouri, and informs the defendant, THEODORE S. WIGGINS, that it will seek to enhance the punishment against him in this Indictment pursuant to the provisions of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(A), which provides in pertinent part:

. . . If any person commits such a violation after a prior conviction for a felony drug offense has become final, such person shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of not less than 20 years . . . a fine not to exceed the greater of twice that authorized in accordance with the provisions of Title 18 or $8,000,000 if the defendant is an individual . . . and shall, if there was such a prior conviction, impose a term of supervised release of at least 10 years in addition to such term of imprisonment. . . . If any person commits a violation of this subparagraph...after two or more prior convictions for a felony drug offense have become final, such person shall be sentenced to a mandatory term of life imprisonment without release and fined in accordance with the preceding sentence...No person sentenced under this subparagraph shall be eligible for parole during the term of imprisonment imposed therein.

It is the intention of the government to rely on the following prior felony drug conviction:

1. THEODORE S. WIGGINS was convicted on August 1, 2000, in the Circuit Court of Jackson County, Missouri, for distribution of a controlled substance, in Case Number CR98-03880, a class B felony. The defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of ten years.

2. THEODORE S. WIGGINS was convicted on June 22, 2000, in the Circuit Court of Jackson County, Missouri, for possession of a controlled substance, in Case Number 7CR199001701, a class B felony. The defendant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of four years and was granted probation.

The government has obtained a certified copies of the sentencing and judgment with regard to these convictions, which have been made available through discovery and may be reviewed at the Office of the United States Attorney. This information and notice is made pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 851.

Respectfully submitted,

Beth Phillips
United States Attorney
