PRO SE LETTER TO COURT

REMARKS: Parties present in person and with standby counsel. Defendant advised the Court that he is not obtaining the access to the discovery and law books that he needs. U.S. Marshal Franovich advised the Court that the books and the discovery are now available in the Marshal's lockup area. The Court will advise defendant's caseworker at CCA that defendant should be allowed to come to the courthouse on a regular basis to review his discovery and use the law books that are available at the courthouse. The Court is setting an additional hearing to follow-up on this matter for Wednesday, June 8, 2011 at 9:30 a.m.
