Comes now the United States of America, through its undersigned attorneys, and offers the following response to Defendant Scott's, Pro se, Motion to Issue a Subpoena Deuces Tecum. The Government offers the following suggestions:

In his motion, Scott requests "all statements and proffer agreements, all written or recorded documents of all agreements entered upon between co-defendants and the government." In accordance with the Court's Stipulations and Orders (D.E. 221, p.4), the Government will provide copies of plea agreements and accompanying documents of any cooperating defendants that the Government will call at trial, no later than ten days before trial. The Government will provide this information to Defendant Scott by providing a compact disc containing the requested documentation to the U.S. Marshall's Service that can be viewed by Scott at a time and location determined by the U.S. Marshall's Service in accordance with this Court's previous orders. This information may be viewed by Scott to prepare for trial but it is the Government's understanding that it will not be provided to him. Instead, it will be kept in the custody and control of the U.S. Marshall's Service as with the additional discovery that has been provided.
