CASE NO. 10-cr-00162-FJG

MOTION TO WITHDRAW COUNSEL

I Mylin D. Smith, not totally in my mental state of mind, am requesting that my present attorney be withdrawn from my case, due to ineffective assistance of counsel. This is my second motion regarding this situation that has still yet to be resolved between counsel Alex McCaulley and I Mylin D. Smith. When asked a seriousness of questions concerning my counsel Alex McCaulley states that he can not do much to help me in my case. Giving that counsel Alex McCaulley is unconcerned about my case and well-being. I would ask that he be removed from representing me on me on my case. As I continue to read case law concerning my and questioned counsel about motions to file he continues to tell me he will not file the motions and I've also asked him to provide me with legal documents such as court dockets, grand jury transcripts, Indictment and he's failed to provide anything those just to name a few. The only thing Alex McCaulley is concerned with is me taking a plea, being that is he's come up with numerous strategic methods to get me to plead out such as scare-tactics. With all due respect I am asking that I be allowed to be assigned a counsel with better knowledge and experience, since counsel Alex McCaulley is certain that he can not win or propose a good defense to my case. THANK you and God Bless

ATTORNEY: Alex McCauley

I Mylin D. Smith is presenting this Omnibus Motion "PER SE" with all due respect to the courts, I'm acting in "PER SE" cause my Attorney Alex McCaulley refuses to file these motions for. I've requested several times and have given Alex McCaulley more than enough time to file, and knowing some of the motions that I'm filing have to be addressed pretrial before it can be brought up on the Appellant level. So with that said and taken in consideration that I'm not a lawyer, this is the only way to have these issue address. Thank you for your time.
